

The Filipiniana Dance Company

2009 FACES Conference Lunch Entertainment

Our goal is to preserve our cultural traditions and continue reverence in the family.

Formed in 1970 as part of the Family Choir of the Immaculate Conception Church, the Filipiniana Dance Company quickly found an audience for its specialty programs.

Drawing from the many ethnic traditions found in the Philippines, the Spanish, Arabic, Chinese, and Indo-Malayan Societies, the Company combined rich pageantry, elegant costumes, music, and dance to create an exciting intermingling of different cultures that remain uniquely Filipino.

This style has been infused into the heritage of the Pacific-Rim and influenced Northwest sensibilities.

The Filipiniana Dance Company has performed extensively for almost 40 years earning numerous accolades throughout the years.
